Hey Marketeers,

According to Wikipedia, Mastercoin was the first ever ICO: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Initial_coin_offering

I'm pretty sure Ripple counts as an ICO and happened before Mastercoin, thoughts?

Mastercoin first sold tokens on July 31, 2013.

@Chris: When did Opencoin Inc. sell its first Ripple tokens? Do we have any public record of that?

Since Wikipedia isn't an original source, I believe the correct remedy would be to get the source publication (CoinTelegraph - <https://cointelegraph.com/explained/ico-explained>) to publish a correction and then update Wikipedia.
